

Mark Haynes, M0DXR

Mark is an extremely avid operator with an interest in all bands and modes. In particular, has enjoyed advancing in the world of contesting over the past 30 years.

Married to Georgina Haynes, M6YGL with 4 children.

Mark holds a number of DXCC contest all-time records. He serves as Chairman of WRTC UK 2026. Mark has operated from 40 DXCCs DXpedition and Contest style including from Comoros, Maldives, Kerguelen, Cyprus and Costa Rica. He was the RSGB Young Amateur of the Year in 1999 which led to new opportunities in worldwide DXing. Member of K3LR Contest Team having operated there 10 times and is a member of the FOC. Past professor at Contest University. Personal contest call is G9W.

Professionally, he is a Senior Project Manager in the rail transport industry whilst also being a contributor for Amateur Radio manufacturer and distributor Moonraker in the UK.